SUBJECT No. 706.

Membership of the R. A. to be extended from three to five years.

Messrs. Nadig, Swami Rao and Rama Rao, Sorab taluk.

Summary of Representation.—As several subjects discussed in the Representative Assembly may remain undisposed of for three years, it is prayed that the term of members elected from taluks may be extended from three to five years.

SUBJECT No. 707.

Compulsory insurance for sending halves of currency notes.

Mr. Veeraiya, Tarikere taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Though insurance of covers containing currency notes has been made compulsory in Post Offices, yet the authorities are responsible only for the covers and not for their contents. It is prayed that the rule of compulsory insurance be relaxed in the case of covers containing halves of currency notes.

SUBJECT No. 708.

Sureties for the issue of duplicate half-notes.

Mr. Sangappa, Davangere taluk.

Summary of Representation.—When an application is made to the Currency Office for the issue of a duplicate half-note in place of a lost one, the authorities require the production of sureties from among British Subjects Sometimes people find it difficult to procure such sureties. It is therefore prayed that the authorities may be requested to accept sureties from among the respectable persons of the State.

SUBJECT No. 709.

Reward for killing wild beasts.

Mr. Subba Rao, Tarikere taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Increase of jungles in the malnad has afforded shelter to wild beasts which commit great havoc on men and cattle. It is prayed that suitable arrangements may be made for their destruction by increasing the rate of reward offered for killing them.
